Quality is our priority

Product and process quality is our highest priority, every single day. To underline this objective we are subscribing members of the DGM (German Furniture Makers Quality Association). Challenge us and put us to the test! Rest assured, we will meet your every requirement to your full satisfaction.

Innovation and high-tech

Innovation is our daily obligation. Thanks to close cooperation with leading research institutes and business partners at the forefront of technology and design, we work unceasingly on advancing our expertise.

Exchange of information

The exchange of information with all our business partners at the highest level is a key factor in success, providing the guarantee for a flexible response to constantly changing market requirements. And flexibility is our strength!

Customer orientation

Customer orientation in terms of lasting partner-like working relations and the competence and desire to supply solutions from one source are at the core of our service concept. We are never too small for big tasks, but never too big for small solutions either.
